IMPORTANT

- * All registered shareholders for the nominated account must sign and will act as the formal renunciation instruction for future redemptions from the account without the need for any further documentation to be completed.
- * The My Account section of the fundsmith.co.uk website is an online portal where clients can register to access their account online. The My Account section can only be used by named individual shareholders and in the case of jointly held accounts only by the first named shareholder. Note: If this Auto Settlement Agreement is completed on behalf of an account held in joint names the first named shareholder can request a redemption on behalf of the other joint shareholders, no further action will be required by the other joint shareholders, and payment will automatically be made to the bank account nominated above without any further reference to the other joint holders. Third party payments are not allowed.
