Your use of the Social Media Channels is done solely at your own risk.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Fundsmith will not be liable, or have any responsibility, for any losses, damages, costs or expenses of whatever nature, whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise, even if foreseeable, arising under or in connection with: (i) the use of, or inability to use, the Social Media Channels or the content made available on the Social Media Channels; or (ii) the use of, or reliance on, any content made available via the Social Media Channels.

Not suitable for U.S. Persons

Use of Fundsmith's Social Media Channels

We cannot discuss account-specific information or complaints on our Social Media Channels and ask that you direct such inquiries to IR@fundsmith.co.uk.

You must not post content that: (i) advertises third-party services; (ii) is considered spam; (iii) provides investment advice or discusses specific securities; (iv) discloses your investment account information or other personal identifiable information; (v) is irrelevant, derogatory, or abusive. We reserve the right to remove comments where these rules are not followed.

Comments and opinions posted by third-parties are the responsibility of the person who posted them. We do not adopt, endorse, or guarantee the accuracy of content posted by third-parties, and such content does not represent the views of Fundsmith.

For information purposes only

The content published through our Social Media Channels is intended for information purposes only and should not be considered investment advice or a recommendation to invest in any particular security, strategy or investment product. Moreover, such content is not an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy shares of any fund. References to specific securities and their issuers or other investments are not intended and should not be interpreted as recommendations to purchase, sell or hold such securities or other investments. Fundsmith does not provide tax, legal, financial, accounting or investment advice. Past performance is not a guide to future performance. The value of investments and the income from them can fall as well as rise and investors may not get back the original amount invested.

We have no control over the contents of third-party website resources and accept no responsibility for them or for any loss or damage that may arise from your use of them. You access such third-party sites and resources at your own risk. Such third-party websites and resources will have their own terms and conditions of use, and your use of them and your relationship with their owners and/or operators will be governed by such terms and conditions.
